Virtual Culinary Team Building

With more than 2000 culinary team building events under our belt, we're an acknowledged leader in the field. In fact, we believe there is no better venue than a kitchen for organizations to create cohesion, collaboration and esprit de corps.

But in these times of uncertainty, you may not be able to come to our team building kitchen. In that case, we can come to you with a virtual team building and cooking event.

We've migrated our onsite experience to a Virtual/Zoom platform that brings you the best aspects of our Iron Chef team building competitions while your teams participate from the safety of their own kitchens.

It's Both a Cooking Class and Team Building Session

You stay where you are and we orchestrate the virtual cooking event from our team building kitchen. Based on the menu you select; we provide you with recipes and a shopping list prior to the event. We may also provide you with a budget and a few options for “secret ingredients.”

On the day of the event, your teammates log in from their kitchens, and our chefs guide you through meal preparation and techniques. We may show you how to stuff and fold an empanada or how to get the perfect sear on a chicken breast.

When we start the clock, you and your teammates cook and we answer questions and guide you as needed. When time is up, you must make a beautiful judge's plate and take a photo of it. Then, we all take a break to eat. After the meal, we announce the winners.

- Best plate
- Most creative dish
- Best use of secret ingredient

Then you nominate an MVP and we discuss the lessons learned from the cooking and the teamwork. We also take photos during the event and provide you with a commemorative slide show!

Setting Up a Virtual Team Building Event is as Easy as “Just Add Water”

We've taken the hassle out of organizing these virtual events. We handle all the details, including the video production, menus, shopping lists, judging and prizes. We even facilitate a short team building review and create a post-event video slide show with photos.

Most of our clients spend only an hour or two in preparation before the session.

“Team Building with Taste made it so easy for us to have our virtual team building session. I didn't really have to do much at all.”

Even Your Family Members Can Get in on the Action

During COVID-19 isolation, loneliness and stress among remote workers have increased. Our culinary team building is designed to address those issues. But, in the course of running these virtual team building sessions for organizations, including Prime Lending, Merck and UBS, we've noticed another surprising set of benefits. After months of staying at home, participants love peering into their co-worker's kitchens. They enjoy getting a small glimpse of what their everyday life is like outside of the normal conference calls and rote video meetings. A few surprising comments include:

“Oh, THAT'S what Spike the dog looks like.”

“Emily, your teenage daughters are such good sous chefs!”

Menus and Pricing

By the way, did we mention you also get to enjoy a great meal?

We've handcrafted the three menus below because they are ideal for virtual online Iron Chef team cooking challenges. We can make these taste great from anyone's kitchen. Pricing is $69 per person. Volume discounts apply for large groups. Call for more information.
